*One science course must include laboratory.
Program Description: The Business Administration department introduces students to various business subject areas, one or more of which they may choose to explore further at a four-year institution. It also provides students with a strong general business background, enabling them to transfer to a four-year institution as juniors and to be successful in their pursuit of a bachelor of science in business administration or a more specialized business degree.

Admission Requirements: Must meet first-semester course prerequisites.

Department Faculty Advisors: Mary Baricevic and Scott Cazadd

Division Chair: Linda Abernathy
