After a banner inaugural season, the PACE series at Jefferson College is back! World-class performing artists and interactive cultural experiences during the 2013-14 season offer something for everyone, including: comedy, jazz, theatre, Indian music, Colombian dance, film, art, classical music, Las Vegas-style magic and illusion, and a backyard BBQ with the Funky Butt Brass Band that is sure to have the whole community dancing!

One of the goals of the Cultural Diversity Committee in cultivating PACE events is to bring the campus and community together through exciting, interactive, and intimate experiences of arts and culture. We program events that will entertain, educate, and enrich the lives of our campus and community members, and we ensure that while you may pay top dollar to have experiences like these elsewhere, at Jefferson College, you won’t have to break the bank. For less than you would pay for a single event at most major venues, you can purchase a season pass for an entire year’s worth of entertainment (and free parking) right here in your own backyard. This idea of pairing unparalleled quality with accessibility is the hallmark of PACE, and reflects the mission of Jefferson College.

We have worked diligently to assemble the perfect blend of Performing Arts and Cultural Enrichment for you this season, and we look forward to welcoming you to the PACE community. Pick up your season pass today, and prepare to be thrilled and inspired!

THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE Band of MID-AMERICA

SHADES OF BLUE Jazz Ensemble

The U.S. Air Force Band of Mid-America has a long history of entertaining the American public and promoting esprit de corps within the military.

The unit strives to inspire the hearts and minds of our men and woman serving around the world and to tell the Air Force story through the universal language of music.

Each year, the band of mid-America performs for millions of people throughout a ten-state region from the upper peninsula of Michigan to Oklahoma.

THE WEE TRIO

“THE TRIO PUTS FORTH A COMPPELLING CASE THAT THEY ARE THE AMBASSADORS OF THE GENRE’S FUTURE.”

— THE SARATOGIAN —

“GRABS THE LISTENER BY THE LAPELS AND YANKS – HARD.”

— ALLABOUTJAZZ.COM —

The Wee Trio burst onto the scene with Capitol Diner Vol.1, winning huge international acclaim and being picked for the Top Ten CDs of ’08 by The San Francisco Chronicle, Boston’s Patriot Ledger and All About Jazz. The ‘Bi-Coastal’ band (with James living in New Orleans) toured extensively, playing across the US at venues and festivals such as The Green Mill, The Ottawa Jazz Festival, Jazz at The Bistro, Le Poisson Rouge, The Fox River Jazz Festival, Snug Harbor and the Jazz Bakery. In 2010 the release of Capitol Diner, Vol.2: Animal Style, an exciting evolution of the trio’s sound, brought a fresh round of excitement and praise from critics and fans alike.

With a coast to coast tour in 2012 the trio unveiled their most intriguing project to date: a marriage of their distinct sound to the music of the iconic David Bowie. Ashes to Ashes: A David Bowie INTRAspective tuned in an excited new audience to the band’s sound as well as becoming a critic’s favorite. Their current project, a record of new and classic material recorded live at the Bistro, is due out in September 2013.

“THE WEE TRIO HAVE FOUND A UNIQUE SLANT, NOT ONLY IN THEIR VIBES/BASS/DRUMS INSTRUMENTATION BUT IN THEIR LYRICAL SONGWRITING & FLOWING INTERACTION.”

Ustad Imrat Khansahab is widely recognized as one of the giants of Indian classical music, celebrated for his virtuosity, musicality and regarded as a poet of sitar and surbahar. Khansahab’s work in the dissemination and wider appreciation of Indian classical music throughout the world is almost unparalleled. Khansahab’s presence in St. Louis and his efforts have now established St. Louis as an important center for Indian classical music, art and culture.

Featuring
Brandon Ridenour
of the Canadian Brass

As a virtuoso trumpeter, composer, arranger, and educator, Brandon Ridenour is widely recognized as one of the most multi-talented and formidable artists of his generation. Through his wide-ranging activities as a soloist and chamber musician, combined with his ardent passion for composing, Brandon enjoys performing and recording a unique array of repertoire that includes many of his own arrangements and compositions. In 2006, at the age of 20, Brandon became the youngest member to ever join the prestigious Canadian Brass; a position he held for 7 years. Brandon currently resides in Brooklyn, New York.

The Missouri Saxophone Quartet (MSQ) was formed in 2009 and is devoted to exploring and promoting new music, particularly that of Missouri composers. The Missouri Arts Council has recognized MSQ as among the state’s most distinguished artists by being named a Missouri Touring Performer. MSQ performs a wide variety of styles, from baroque transcriptions, to traditional French repertoire, to jazz and tango, and even the avant-garde. MSQ is also committed to educational outreach and has performed at numerous high schools throughout Missouri.

Keith Jozsef’s unique blend of art and artifice make him one of today’s most sought-after entertainers. He was the youngest person ever to be voted president of the International Brotherhood of Magicians, at age 19. Throughout the past 22 years he has enchanted audiences with his impeccable sense of timing and showmanship.

Voted Magician of the Year five times, Keith Jozsef has entertained at corporate events for Anheuser-Busch, Frito-Lay, Monsanto, McDonald’s and I.B.M. as well as for celebrities, such as Muhammad Ali, Bob Costas, and John Goodman. He has made numerous television appearances on Fox, CBS, and NBC, including two for the St. Louis Cardinals on Fox Sports Midwest, as well as starring in two joint-performances with the renowned St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

What separates Keith Jozsef from other illusionists is, quite simply, his captivating stage-presence. He weaves drama and humor with intimate sleight of hand and grand illusion to create emotional works of wonder. He takes his audience on a journey of the imagination and returns them safely, with a renewed sense of mystery to take with them after the show.

Peter Martin

Bassist extraordinaire, composer, arranger, educator, curator administrator, and 3-time Grammy® winner Christian McBride has been one of the most important and most omnipresent figures in the jazz world for 20 years. Beginning in 1989, this Philadelphia-born bassist moved to New York City to further his classical studies at the Juilliard School, only to be snatched up by alto saxophonist, Bobby Watson. Since then, McBride’s list of accomplishments have been nothing short of staggering.

Peter Martin is an acclaimed jazz pianist, composer, arranger and educator. He performed on and arranged Dianne Reeves’ Grammy® winning release A Little Moonlight. He also appeared in George Clooney’s 2005 film Good Night, and Good Luck as well as being the featured pianist and an arranger on the Grammy® winning soundtrack. Peter has performed, toured and recorded with the Berlin Philharmonic, Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic.
