I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

A. Prerequisite: ART117 Watercolor I

B. 3 semester credit hours

C. Watercolor II is a studio art course allowing students to continue their study of the fine art of the transparent water-based media. Intermediate theories and practices of watercolor will be studied, with students working with still-life, landscape, figure, abstract and non-objective concerns. Types of pigment, paper, and methods of paint application will continue to be studied. Students will also learn about the history of the media in this course. This course will be open to both Fine Arts majors and non-majors as well, providing prerequisites have been met.

II. EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES/ASSESSMENT MEASURES

This course is designed to give students an expanded knowledge and intermediate mastery of the history, theory and practice of Watercolor. Students will produce a wide variety of watercolor paintings, coming to understand the tremendous number of applications for this fine and commercial art media.
