LIFEJACKETS

Directions: Place the letter in the blank to match the following words with the correct description or definition.

1. _______ Buoyant
   A. These are not worn, but can be thrown to a person in the water, in an emergency.

2. _______ Lifejacket
   B. Good for calm inland water where there is a chance for a fast rescue.

3. _______ Near-Shore Buoyant Vest – Type 2
   C. able to float

4. _______ Off-Shore Lifejacket – Type 1
   D. also called a personal flotation device

5. _______ Throwable Device – Type 4
   E. comes in many sizes for children and adults

6. _______ Floatation Aid – Type 3
   F. has reflective material to help rescuers find a

7. _______ Special Use Lifejacket – Type 5
   G. designed for specific activities such as kayaking, white-water rafting, and water skiing.

Write 3 statements on how to choose a lifejacket:

1. ________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________

2. ________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________

3. ________________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________
Write 2 statements on how to use your lifejacket:

1. ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

2. ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

Write 3 statements on how to care for a lifejacket:

1. ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

2. ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

3. ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________