It’s hard to believe, but Jefferson College’s landed PACE series keeps getting better! Thanks to your support, we are able to continue bringing the absolute upper echelon of performing arts and cultural enrichment to our community at prices that are accessible to all. No matter what your "PACE" is, we think you’ll find several unforgettable experiences this season.

Is your PACE set around family events?
The 2014-15 season is packed with family-friendly shows like Circus Harmony’s acrobatic St. Louis Arches, a special two-night residency with the Big Muddy Dance Company, a Backyard BBQ with St. Louis "Junk Folk" specialists, the Charflies, and back by popular demand, the Harlem Wizards stunt basketball team!

Are film and theatre more your PACE?
We also have the hilarious comedic hypnotist, Brian Powers, a special silent film festival with live music by Dr. Philip Carli, and our famously entertaining 48 Hour Film Festival.

Does your PACE march to the beat of music?
We’ve got the always extraordinary Chamber Project St. Louis, Master Indian Sitarist Ustad Imrat Khan, Dave Scott’s New York-based modern jazz quintet, the Chinese folk-fusion of the Orchid Ensemble, and Grammy Award-winning vocalist with the Count Basie Orchestra, the incomparable Carmen Bradford!

We wanted to reward you with the most diverse series we’ve ever put together, and we think that you’ll agree with us when we say that any way you look at it, this season’s PACE is exhilarating!
