ABOUT THE PROGRAM
Fontbonne University’s accredited, established social work program shapes students into well-rounded professionals, prepared to serve their communities as advocates for social justice.

Through a new 2+2 program, you can earn an Associate of Arts in Pre-Social Work from Jefferson College and a Bachelor of Social Work from Fontbonne. Both paths lead to a valuable degree in a field devoted to the well-being of others.

ABOUT FONTBONNE
» Community-oriented campus located in a quiet St. Louis suburb.
» Just 30 minutes from Jefferson County.
» Three residence halls.
» More than 30 student organizations.
» NCAA Division III athletics.
» Service projects nearby or abroad.
PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

» Learn through in-class coursework, including professional practice courses and field placements, in the areas of counseling, health and mental health, gerontology, family and children services, criminal justice, and social and economic justice. The program offers more than 250 field placement opportunities in Jefferson, Franklin, Crawford, Washington and St. Charles counties, as well as St. Louis city and county.

» Begin your studies with introductory courses, then move on to core courses and real-world practice opportunities.

» Instructors and professors are passionate, connected professionals — and they all meet the Council for Social Work Education’s faculty requirements.

» Choose from 35 minors to complement your degree at Fontbonne.

» Work with the unique Building Communities: Rural Outreach Project established by Fontbonne professors to assist individuals and families in rural environments.

» Earning a Bachelor of Social Work degree gives you advanced standing in many Master of Social Work programs, eliminating six months to a year from your graduate program.
