MISSION

The Mission of the Jefferson College Foundation is to support the growth and development of Jefferson College in whatever ways are beneficial to its students, faculty, staff, and campus facilities.

The ultimate goal of Jefferson College is to increase the level of educational attainment of Jefferson County residents and thereby enhance the quality of life of the entire community.

Planned Giving

The Jefferson College Foundation can assist you and your financial advisor in developing an estate gift plan that serves you and the College. In addition, the Jefferson College Foundation has a group of professionals who offer consultation to individuals who wish to consider making a gift to the Foundation. Please call for more information.

Jefferson College is the only institution of higher education in Jefferson County, serving more than 7,000 students annually. The College serves students bound for a four-year institution as well as those seeking to enhance job skills or broaden their personal learning experiences.

In addition to technical and higher-education programs, the College offers special services such as on-campus housing, career planning and counseling, and customized training for area businesses. The College also hosts cultural events, athletic events and meetings of community organizations. With over 100,000 people using its facilities annually, Jefferson College is truly the educational, cultural and meeting center of the entire Jefferson County community.

The Annual Fund is a critical source of unrestricted revenue for the College. The Edge of Excellence campaign is designed to provide immediate support for Jefferson College students, campus facilities and programs.
