“SUSPECT INTERVIEWING & INTERROGATION”

The course that was developed by Law Enforcement Instructors Alliance for the FBI and DEA is now available to all law enforcement, prosecutors, and security professionals!!!

Thursday & Friday
October 1 & 2, 2015
8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Location
Jefferson College Law Enforcement Academy
4400 Jeffco Blvd.
Arnold, Missouri

This course is a behavioral science approach to criminal interviewing and interrogation based on over 50 years of combined experience along with related scientific research. The success of any investigator is directly related to his or her ability to conduct effective interviews and interrogations. The goal of this course is to improve the ability of both new and experienced investigators to “detect deception” maximize information gathering and obtain “legally admissible” confessions from suspects.

Topic areas will include:

- Proper questioning methodology
- Detection of deception
- “Myths” regarding lie detection
- Effective strategies to obtain confessions
- Legal issues
- Advantages and pitfalls of videotaping

Comments from attendees who have taken this class:

“The art of interviewing is brilliantly analyzed.”

“Excellent class, very knowledgeable instructors who are very good at conveying the material.”

“This course should be mandatory training for all detectives.”

Participants will receive 16 hours of POST continuing education credit in the following categories:
2 hours of Legal Studies, 7 hours of Technical Studies and 7 hour Interpersonal Perspectives

Two day seminar fee: $200.00 (Checks made payable to Law Enforcement Instructors Alliance)
